TREATY BACK FROM PANAMA

Epoch-Making Document Soon Going Before Congress.

New York, Dec. 15.—The steamer City of Washington arrived today from Colon bringing the signed copy of the canal treaty with the Republic of Panama.

The treaty was in a metal box in charge of the purser, who turned it over to the representatives of the government on arrival at the dock.

There was no news of importance reported by the officers and passengers.

A Christmas Present.

The Association is offering a suggestion to all who are in doubt as to what to get the boy or young man for Christmas. The most acceptable present would be a membership in the Y. M. C. A. This is something that will last for the entire year, will constantly remind the holder of some of the donor, can be renewed indefinitely, will be a source of enjoyment to him all the time, will provide a place for him to spend his leisure hours, and costs practically nothing for the benefits received. Boys under 16 years and over 10 years, $3.00 a year, and over 16 years $5.00. Phone 414 or call at the Association for further particulars.

Plea of Guilty.

Today in the district court Rich Shaver entered a plea of guilty to the theft of fogs.

In the Will Terry case a fine of $250 and cost was imposed.

The Will Newsome case is now on trial.

A Wedding.

Last evening at 7:15 Miss Johnnie Watts and Mr. M. H. McGarvey of Houston were married at the home of the brides' parents, Judge and Mrs. John F. Watts; Rev. Willis, pastor of Centenary M. E. church officiating.

It was a quiet home wedding, with the ring ceremony, and the relatives and only a few friends were present. Misses Stokes of Crockett, a cousin to the bride, and Miss Josie Watts, a sister, were the only attendants.

Mrs. Lee Signor sang a beautiful wedding song, and Miss Stevie Allen played the march.

The happy couple departed on an early evening train for Houston.

State Officials.

This morning Governor Lanham, Attorney General Bell, State Treasurer Robbins, Secretary Cravens, J. O. Coupland, W. M. Thornton of the Dal-Gal News, and a number of other gentlemen passed through the city from Austin to Rusk, to attend the Busby trial.

It was the general opinion that the case would be continued.
